VidaBox Exhibits at the Asian Pacific CEDIA EXPO with Smart Home Distribution Pty Ltd as New Distributor

Garden City Park, NY – June 11th – VidaBox LLC, a leading manufacturer of Blu-ray, DVD, music servers and control systems is proud to announce Smart Home Distribution Pty Ltd as their new distributor for Australia and New Zealand. Dealers and integrators can see how multiroom HD audio and video distribution works via IP over a single CAT cable at the Asian Pacific CEDIA Expo, running June 23rd to 25th in Booth 3A.

"VidaBox is excited to be exhibiting alongside our new distributors," says Steven Cheung, President of VidaBox, LLC. "Our unique, cutting edge technologies that have been so successful here in the US is now even more widely available to qualified integrators. Combined with Smart Home Distribution's training facilities and support resources, VidaBox becomes an excellent choice for dealers looking to add Blu-ray capable media servers to their product line."

Beyond supporting Blu-ray, DVD, and CD playback, archiving, and multiroom distribution, VidaBox servers and extenders are also ready for online content. Users can access a full array of music, videos, and other media – all streamed directly from the internet. Not only can VidaBox provide the complete solutions needed for archiving the popular, disc-based media today, but these systems are ready for online, streaming content in the future.

"We are ecstatic about the opportunity to represent VidaBox," says Emmanuel Moutsos, managing director of Smart Home Distribution. "VidaBox is home entertainment at its finest. VidaBox media products are best of breed and in keeping with our company philosophy to offer feature rich solutions that are reliable, simple to install and use, thereby positively impacting on the integrators success and the end users satisfaction."
